Bishop Dwight Reed: Guiding the Path to a Better Future

Bishop Dwight Reed is a dedicated spiritual leader committed to faith, service, and community growth. Born in Okmulgee, Oklahoma, and raised in Des Moines, Iowa, he built a strong foundation through education, ROTC leadership, and theological training at JCAA. After pastoring two churches in Louisiana, he became Senior Pastor of Christ Apostolic Temple, Inc. in December 2017. For over seven years, Bishop Reed has led Iowa's largest predominantly African American church, inspiring lives through impactful outreach programs, including CATCOS. His vision focuses on unity, empowerment, and creating opportunities, guiding the path toward a brighter, stronger future for the community he serves.
